

ROMY BASIL APPOINTED TO EDUCATION POSITION WITH FIRST COMMAND EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 11, 2008 and thereafter

CONTACT: Mary Rusnak, mbrusnak@FirstCommand.org, 817-569-2634

Romy Basil has been appointed Financial Education Instructor for First Command Educational Foundation (FCEF). A candidate for a Master's of International Management from Neeley School of Business at Texas Christian University, Basil earned her Bachelor's in Business Administration in International Business at Stephen F. Austin State University. At TCU she studied under the new dual degree program with Ecole Supérieure de Commerce Dijon, of Dijon, France, as a part of her international studies.

She has been an advisor recruiter for First Command Financial Services, and prior to that, worked for Infinity Insurance as a Policy Service Specialist. As the Financial Education Instructor for FCEF, Basil will deliver financially-based presentations to community organizations and will work to secure partnerships to increase the foundation's opportunities for delivering the message of effective money management.

She has been involved in numerous volunteer projects from Boys and Girls Club of Nacogdoches to the Miracle League of Tarrant County.

FCEF has been in operation 25 years, and is a 501C3 public charity dedicated to financial literacy and the distribution of scholarships. In recently years, FCEF has presented to more than 45,000 people, delivering some 30 different financial presentations. This includes a focus on the curriculum, Personal Financial Education for Texas High Schools, which was published to meet the 2006 state mandate for the study of money management in junior and senior high school classes prior to graduation. The FCEF curriculum has been approved by the Texas State Board of Education, is written specifically to the Board's guidelines, and delivered to more than 1,000 educators across the state, free of charge.

#####