

SCHOLARSHIP PRESENTATION

Thank you for allowing me to make this presentation. (As you heard just a moment ago) my name is _____ and I'm a _____ with _____.

Vickie Mauldin, the executive director, First Command Educational Foundation, asked me to represent the Foundation today to present this scholarship on their behalf; I'm extremely honored to be able to do so and personally proud to be with you _____ as part of this ceremony.

First of all, congratulations to all the scholarship recipients!! It is gratifying to be a part of a ceremony of this type. We are constantly bombarded with information about kids in trouble, but it's young men and women such as those I see here today who give all of us lasting hope for the future.

First Command Educational Foundation was founded in 1983 and, over the past 24 years, has awarded over $3.5 million in scholarships to students all over the world. Helping these deserving young men and women may be one of the most important things that the Foundation does. First Command Educational Foundation believes strongly in the personal financial literacy of our young leaders and is also providing financial education on a wide variety of topics to many different groups, on any given day, at locations all around the world--at little or no cost. The Foundation is dedicated to helping these young people succeed both personally and professionally, and will continue to support these vital education and scholarship programs.

It is my pleasure to present this scholarship to one such a deserving individual on behalf of First Command Educational Foundation. Thank you once again for the opportunity to participate in your ceremony today, and more importantly, provide help to and recognize such a great young American.

Will _____ please come forward to accept this $_____ scholarship award from First Command Educational Foundation?
